Other Notes

Giddeon is my pater, a reclusive Ex Miscellanean who is a master of the sea he is scaled and can live under water. He Is a Rego Aquam specialist who has the blatant gift. My gift manifests as echoes from voice and feet. Parents lived at Dunmear on Bodmin moor I have an uncle Blethin whom I killed. Father Brocknail who abides near Petrus' cave. Food tastes inedible and meat disagrees with me only human flesh or Vis animals are satisfying. If eaten for the moon period after I do not need spells to change height, as it is natural. If all I want to eat is human flesh I can survive on one man a month.
